A NEW LAW WHICH WILL ENCOURAGE A GREAT INDUSTRY

Recent Legislature Appropriated Fifteen Thousand Dollars Toward Stamping Out the Vineyard Pests Which Threaten Extinction.

The recent State Legislature in its efforts to reward its friends and to strike terror into the hearts of its political enemies actually found time to lay aside spiteful legislation and pass a few wholesome laws for the benefit of the people. Among these latter was an Act appropriating $15,000 to assist the viticulturist in stamping out the vineyard pests, which are threatening one of the great industries of the State. The Act, which was approved by the Governor, provides as follows:

Section 1. The regents of the University of California are hereby directed to cause to be prosecuted with all possible diligence, in connection with and in addition to the work heretofore carried on by the agricultural experiment station, experiment and research work in viticulture, including both cultural and industrial processes. They are directed to ascertain the adaptations of the various kinds of vines to the several climatic soil and conditions of the State, with the special reference to stocks resistant to the phylloxera and to further their utility as grafting stocks for wine, raisin and table grapes. They are directed to ascertain the best methods of grafting and propagating said stocks and vines, together with the most important methods of vinification and of the preparation, manufacture and application of yeasts in vinification and distillation. They are further directed to report upon the handling, packing and transportation of table grapes, the preparation and curing of raisins, the utilization of the by-products of the vineyard and winery, the study and treatment of vine diseases and all matters appertaining to the viticultural industry pertinent to the successful conduct of the business that may be of general public interest, use and profit.

They are further directed to publish the result of said experiments and investigations in form of bulletins from time to time, as may seem advisable and not less than two bulletins showing the progress and result of the work shall be issued in any fiscal year.

The director of the agricultural experiment station shall obtain and establish such assistants, equipment, materials, appliances, and other incidentals as may be necessary to the successful prosecution of the work, within the appropriation specified.

Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated for the use of said experiment station, for the purpose set forth in this act for the sixty-third and sixty-fourth fiscal years, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), and the said appropriation shall thereafter be carried in the general appropriation bill for each succeeding biennial period, and the State Controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant for the same, and the Treasurer of the State is hereby directed to pay such warrant.

Sec. 3. All money appropriated under this act shall be paid to the regents of the University of California, and expended under the direction of the director of the agricultural experiment station of said university for the specific purpose herein named.

An Improvement for Summer Visitors.

C. F. Leidecker of the Palace Hotel has been making more improvements to his resort. Among other things we notice that he has fitted up the grounds in the rear of his hotel with a summer garden for the accommodation of guests. The garden is lighted with incandescent globes and is provided with tables, where, surrounded with flowers and shrubbery, guests may sit during the hot summer days and enjoy their meals or refreshments under the cool inviting shade of the trees. This improvement will be greatly appreciated by summer guests.

What the People of El Verano are Doing as Told by Our Weekly Reporter

L. L. Lewis was an S. P. passenger to Sacramento the fore part of the week.

Mrs. M. E. Oliver, manager of the Elite studio, made a trip to San Francisco Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rainey of San Francisco are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Carmer.

Robert Poppe, the Sonoma attorney, was a passenger on the northbound train for Santa Rosa Monday.

Louie Peterson, the El Verano lumber man, is doing a rushing business and seems to be one of the busiest men in town.

Larry Kohler, a Wells-Fargo & Co messenger, is spending the week in town renewing old acquaintanceships.

Jack Kearney came down from Eldridge Sunday morning to root for the El Verano boys at the baseball game.

The Index-Tribune in its new dress is very much appreciated by its many readers hereabouts. Long may it wave

John Lounibos is having his winery remodeled and will, it is said, install a liquor store therein in the near future.

James Post, the veteran comedian and one of the best now before the public, is spending his vacation at one of the resorts.

Lawrence Larsen, an extensive contractor and builder, is here from San Francisco, and is visiting at the residence of his brother-in-law T. H. Baines, the real estate agent.

F. J. Cossey, formerly of Sonoma, has come to El Verano and has his "Skee-ball" bowling alley running in full swing. A number of our young sports are greatly interested in the game and it looks as if we will produce a champ before the summer is over.

On memorial day "Old Glory" was half masted at the Mullen bungalow from sunrise until noon and full mast from noon until sunset, in memory of the fallen heroes of the Civil War. M. F. is always there, with military precision, to display the emblem of of the republic on national holidays.

The much-discussed baseball game between the El Verano baseball club and the San Francisco Jewelers was played on the Bellevue diamond last Sunday. It was an even game at the end of the ninth and another inning was necessary to decide the contest, El Verano losing by a score which read: 5 to 4.

With the coming of the summer crowd into the valley, the great need of a peace officer is beginning to be sorely felt in this vicinity. Since the resignation of Deputy Constable Mouyer, some months ago, things have been somewhat out of order and need repairing. Three candidates are already in the field circulating petitions seeking the appointment at the hands of Constable Ryan. The fight is likely to prove an interesting one as each of the ambitious trio have a considerable following. May the best man win.

Cafe for Lawrence Villa Park

Messrs. Gere & Bruchou, the genial proprietors of the Lawrence Villa Park, continue to make improvements at their popular resort for the pleasure of their guests. This week a cafe is being built on the east side of their dancing pavilion which will be used as an annex to same. Here they will serve to their guests everything known in the culinary art. Since taking over Lawrence Villa Park Messrs. Gere & Bruchou have done much to advertise the attractions of Sonoma to the outside world as a most desirable place for summer visitors. Both are well-known in San Francisco where they were engaged in the hotel business for years, and in taking over the Lawrence Villa Park property they are not only boosting their resort but the town as well.

Woman's Club Notes.

At the regular club meeting last Friday the list of members was increased by three new names.

The Fourth of July Committee reported an excellent program for the day's celebration, details for which are rapidly being arranged. The day will be royally celebrated and a good sum of money will certainly be forthcoming to aid the new library building

The President, Mrs. Hotz, gave a most interesting report of her trip to Long Beach and the annual meeting there of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs. One of the chief points of interest was the indorsement by the Federation of the Equal suffrage resolution. To quote from the last copy of "The Federation Courier:" "The Federation has always stood where it stands now, committed to and bringing its great power and influence to bear upon everything which makes for the betterment, the enlightenment, the uplift of women and through them, of the home, the community, the nation. And just now, at the command of the situation, it has announced its faith in the greatest power for achieving this end-votes-for-women."

Next Friday will be Social Day, and the last regular meeting before the July vacation. Mrs. M. E. Murphy will be hostess for the afternoon and Mrs. W. F. Clewe will have charge of the program.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF THE S. V. U. HIGH SCHOOL

Friends and Patrons of the School Crowd Union Hall to the Doors---The Stage was Beautifully Decorated

The commencement exercises of the Sonoma Union High School were held in Union Hall last Saturday evening. Friends and patrons of the school filled the large hall to overflowing. The seven young graduate were Miss Emilie Roberta Poppe, Rudolph Gustav Wagner, Raymond George Poppe, Miss Lydia Matilda Regusci, Miss Marjorie Laura Buchan, Miss Gertrude Mary Calderwood and Miss Hazel Baines. They occupied prominent positions on the stage, which was beautifully and elaborately decorated with greens and red geraniums. The principal of the school, B. H. Painter, Trustees Poppe and Rubke, Revs. A. B. Roberts and S. L. Lee and Asst. Superintendent of Schools E. Morris Cox also faced the audience. The program was a well selected and instructive one and was ably carried out by the participants.

The first number on the program was a musical selection finely rendered by the Pauli-Johnson orchestra. This was followed by an invocation by Rev. S. L. Lee.

Rudolph Gustav Wagner delivered the salutatory in a masterly manner which reflected great credit not only on himself but his instructors as well. The young graduate impressed one with his fine presence and a thorough command of the English language.

E. Morris Cox, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, followed with a well-delivered address on "The Financial Value of Education," which, although not convincing in all its points, was a most interesting talk.

The valedictorian, Emilie Roberta Poppe, impressed everybody with her remarkable graceful and composed manner while delivering her farewell. The young graduate handled her subject in a scholarly way which showed off to perfection a naturally bright mind.

The presentation of the class of 1911 was made by Principal B. H. Painter after which Robt. A. Poppe, President of the High School Board conferred diplomas upon the graduates.

The audience sang "America," and a benediction by Rev. A. B. Roberts and a musicial selection by the orchestra, closed a program in which the seven graduates left their High School careers behind to take up a higher course of study or to enter into commercial pursuits.

The graduates received many beautiful presents and flowers and were congratulated on all sides by their friends and admirers.

Despicable Journalism.

Some of our over-zealous Republicans contemporaries in their efforts to get aboard the band wagon of the insurgents, who in their efforts to control the Republican party would disrupt it, are engaged in knocking Congressmen Julius Kahn of the Fourth District. These sheets have pinned their faith to Theodore Roosevelt in the hopes of winning favors from him in the event of his trying for a third-term Presidency. This is what Grant, the most illustrious Captain of them all in our Civil War, tried for and failed. Now, if Grant in the zenith of his fame could not overcome the prejudice of the American people against a third-term, in the name of common sense what show would Theodore Roosevelt the Dead One stand of Cæsarizing his country.

The graduation exercises and entertainment of the Presentation Convent school held in Union Hall on Tuesday evening attracted one of the largest audiences that has been seen in this city for a long time. The young lady graduates, Misses Amelia Ciucci, Mary Pinelli, Cecilia Dowdall and Gila Dal Poggetto, were warmly congratulated by hosts of friends and were the recipient of many flowers and other presents.

"The Bishop of Ballarat"

"The Bishop of Ballarat," a farce in three acts, was put upon the boards and splendidly carried out by the students of the Sonoma Valley High School at Union Hall on Friday night of last week. A crowded house greeted the young aspirants for histronic honors and, what is more, the students made good. The play kept the audience convulsed with laughter with its ludicrous situations. GREAT RACE MEET FOURTH OF JULY

Sonoma Driving Club Will Put on Its Track Some of the Fastest Horses on Coast

At a recent meeting of the Sonoma Driving Club it was unanimously decided to hold its semi-annual race meet on the Fourth of July and to offer a list of cash prizes that will bring together on that day some of the fastest trotting and running horses on the coast.

The track has been put in fine shape and many other improvements made on the racing grounds of the club for the accommodation of its patrons.

The president of the club is Mr. Sam B. Lewis and its secretary Mr. Jos. F. Ryan, two of our most prominent business men, while its membership is composed of forty of the leading citizens of both town and valley. This ought to be sufficient guarantee that the races will be all that is claimed for them by the club.

Help boost the celebration to be held here under the auspices of the Woman's Club on July Fourth by attending the Mass Meeting in the City Hall next Monday night.

Hay Market This Week

Somers & Co. of San Francisco, in their report on the condition of the hay market for the week ending Wednesday, say:

"Receipts of hay during the past week have been heavy, a total of 3490 tons arriving which is about 600 tons more than was received the week previous. Old hay continues to be the exclusive kind for local use, there being but a straggling car now and then of new hay offered on the market, although there is considerable new hay in the country baled and ready for shipment; this at present is being held too high by growers. There is some very small trading in new hay going on in the country but these purchases are principally for use in the locality where the hay is grown and the volume of trade is not sufficiently heavy to establish any market value.

"Local hay trade in the bay district is exceedingly dull; there is no activity on the part of consumers in stocking up and therefore the heavy arrivals are moved from the cars and boats only with difficulty and by making concessions in price, and at the present time there is no evidence of any immediate relief for the congested condition of the hay market in San Francisco. During the month of May there were shipped to San Francisco 12,776 tons in comparison with 11,628 tons in May, 1910, a difference of over 1000 tons, which is naturally, when we consider the fact that export trade is at present very quiet, a large surplus of hay with which to contend.

"As the cold weather continues, crop conditions improve materially the growth being rapid which will substantially increase the yield per acre.

"The alfalfa acreage is large and when we consider this together with the carry-over of old hay, there is every reason to believe that we will have sufficient forage for all uses during the coming year."

Mass Meeting in the City Hall next Monday evening. Let every citizen attend.

VINEBURG NEWS AND PERSONALS

"Easy Jim" Tells of the Week's Happenings in His Section

W. Bulencamp is erecting a large barn on his property on the Baker tract.

Fred. Batto, accompanied by his family, took a run over to Petaluma Wednesday.

Everything was quiet in the social circles of this burg the past week—too much doing in Sonoma.

The baseball fans will have a treat next Sunday when the Sonoma Senior Nine will play the Petaluma Stars.

On last Sunday a large number of people passed through Vineburg and all day the burg was the scene of activity.

We understand that a new residence will be erected here in a short time as the building material is on the ground. "That's right keep a coming."

A large number of men are at work for the Hughes' chicken colony people on the Schell tract and much progress is being made in pushing the enterprise forward.

A band of gypsies passed through here the other day and near the station met Jim Small. The "Queen" wanted to tell him his fortune, but Jim didn't lose any fortune and was not hunting for any. Jack Murray, the blacksmith, knows all about it.

Some one remarked the other day that his honor the Mayor of Vineburg, is going to learn the blacksmith's trade. That is not true. He simply goes over to Anderson's shop to show that gentleman what to do and how to do it. Aren't the Mayor obliging.

Large amounts of cherries are being shipped from this point. During the past two weeks Messrs. Lowell, Coops and Rubke have been shipping between them about 200 boxes daily. Robt. Hall of Eden Dale made his first shipment on the 5th inst., which has been followed daily by others.

This section of the valley was well represented at the graduation exercises of the Presentation Convent School in Sonoma on Tuesday evening and every one was delighted with the excellent program and loud in their praise of the good sisters and their intelligent pupils.

Smiling Jep Valente of Sonoma passed through here the other day on his return from Napa and he says to me: "Easy, I was over in Napa today and the people over there didn't have enough sense to keep me there." Jep, next time strike out for the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge. You may have have better luck up that way.

EASY JIM.

Attend the Mass Meeting in the City Hall on Monday evening called by the City Trustees to discuss the parade feature of the celebration here on July 4th.

Handsome Sketch of Proposed Carnegie Library Building

Architect A. C. Lutgens of San Francisco has presented to the City Trustees for their consideration an attractive sketch of the proposed new Carnegie library building which is to occupy a commanding site on Sonoma's eight-acre plaza. The sketch shows off to advantage a one-story and eight-foot basement building to cost $6,000 and can be built inside of that sum in either building stone, pressed brick or concrete. It provides for a reading room 23x26, stack room for books 23x26, committee room 8½x10, chess room 8½x10, lobby, lavatories, etc.

Mr. Lutgens has had years of experience as an architect. He drew the plans for our City Hall, the Masonic building and the Odd Fellows edifice, three of Sonoma's most attractive buildings, and many of San Francisco's fine business blocks are monuments of his architectural skill.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

CITY TRUSTEES IN JUNE SESSION

They Discuss the Sewer, Carnegie Library and Other Matters of Intere t.

At the June meeting of the City Trustees held Wednesday evening a full Board was present with Mayor Cummings in the chair.

The usual monthly bills having been allowed and ordered paid, a report from City Engineer Smyth was read, recommending that the number of manholes on the line of the city's new sewer system be increased from eight to ten. In accordance with this recommendation the Trustees so ordered.

A communication was received from the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club advising the Board that it would be impossible for them to arrange a parade themselves. After reading the communication the Board decided to call a mass meeting of citizens to assist in getting up a parade in conjunction with the celebration in this city on July Fourth in aid of the Carnegie library.

The Board of Trustees have set the date of the mass meeting for Monday evening, June 12th, at the City Hall, the meeting having for its object a grand parade here on the Fourth of July in addition to many other features already provided for by the Woman's Club, who will have charge of the celebration.

Two vacancies in the Board of Library Trustees were filled by President of the Board of Trustees Cummings, R. H. Piatt being appointed to succeed himself and Jesse Prestwood to succeed Wm. Rambo, term expired.

THE PRESENT INSTANT.

Science Defines It as the Hundredth Part of a Second.

A congress of European astronomers decided that the present time—that is, the present moment at any particular instant—consists of the hundredth part of a second. This has been settled on because these men of science have thought that it represented the tiniest fraction of time which could be appreciated by the human brain. Yet the thousandth part of a second is actually used in physical science, especially in certain important uses of electricity.

For scientific purposes, however, the official present moment flashes from the future to the past in the hundredth part of a second. This cannot seem so remarkable when it is recalled that speed records for both horses and men runners are officially calculated in fractions as small as one-fifth of a second.

But in astronomy it is needed to have the hundredth part of a second, for in that moment light can travel 2,000 miles. So time, which is, after all, only a figure of speech and is a mystery that no hmuan brain can understand or fathom, must be considered relatively to one's sensations. The time to pull an aching tooth is really much longer to the sufferer than a whole night spent in sound sleep. It is more of the person's actual life. It demands more food to stand the nervous strain and the pain than hours of quiet rest.

Time, then, for all men is relative to their personal sensations. Yet time is real enough. It takes actual time for starlight to travel, in some cases thousands of years. It takes time for sound to travel and time for the electric wave to work actual results over long distances.

So that time is not only theoretical; it is as real as coal and wood. Yet this reality stretches over a human lifetime back to ages before the existence of the sun and the stars. For purposes of ordinary human work the second is small enough to use as a standard of value, but scientific men have progressed so far in knowledge that the second is too long a period for them to consider as the scientific instant. Therefore they have chosen the hundredth of a second as the standard for the length of time that they will consider as the actual moment at any one instant.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Spoiled His Act.

A musical artist announced to his friends that he had a feature for his act that was calculated to make the whole profession sit up and take notice. Several days later he was asked to divulge his plans.

"Oh, that's all off," was the answer.

"Well, if it was such a wonderful thing what was it?" was the general inquiry.

"I had planned to have a real skeleton," the musical man replied, "with its ribs tuned up so that I could play music on it like a xylophone."

"Great! Why aren't you going to do it?"

The musician heaved a sigh of disappointment.

"I tried it," he answered, "but somebody sold me the skeleton of a ticklish man and I couldn't hit the ribs."—Youngstown Telegram.

A Closed Discussion.

They had argued long and furiously over the question, "Can a man marry his widow's niece!" and the highly talented lawyer in the corner had waxed eloquent over the marriage laws of every state in the Union, every country in the world, civilized and uncivilized, and had cited the affinity tables of every church and even the legislation of Lycurgus down to that of Brigham Young, when a young man quietly announced his intense desire to be informed where the deuce a man was when his wife was a widow?

Then the discussion closed down and fourteen excited controversialists ordered iced water.—New York Times.

A Fair Sized Trout.

The gentleman was strolling across a large estate when he came upon a man fishing. "What sort of fish do you catch here?" he said.

"Mostly trout," replied the man.

"How many have you caught?"

"About ten or twelve, sir."

"What is about the heaviest you have caught?" continued the gentleman.

"Well, I don't know the weight, but the water sunk two or three feet when I pulled it out!"

Divides the Waters.

Situated exactly at the highest point of the divide of the Rocky mountains, on the Crow's Nest division of the Canadian Pacific railway, in British Columbia, is a hotel. When it rains in the mountains the water which falls on the eastern slope of the hotel roof trickles away to join a tiny rivulet, which in due time mingles its waters with the Atlantic. The water falling just beyond the ridgepole, on the other side of the roof, flows westerly and ultimately into the Pacific.

Lots of Them.

"There is one thing which has rather puzzled me."

"What is that?"

"When money talks does it always talk cents?"—Baltimore American.

His Argument.

"Dear, I only play poker for fun."

"But you bet, don't you?"

"Well, there wouldn't be any fun without a little betting."—Pittsburg Post.
